GREENER HORSE MAKES AUSPICIOUS RE-ENTRY AFTER LONG RESPITE FROM RACING.

Rain Results in Wholesale Withdrawals from Frontier Stakes, in which J. W. Schorr Horses Finish First and Second—Windsor Opening Brilliant.

Detroit, Mich., July 13.—John W. Schorr, whose stable has cut an important figure on the Canadian circuit this season, added the Frontier Stakes to the list of his horses' successes when Star Charter galloped home an easy winner in advance of his stable companion, Froglegs.

Despite unpleasant weather conditions, the Windsor track had a brilliant opening. Heavy showers fell all morning, but about noon the sun came out and a big crowd made the trip across the river to participate in the sport. It was the opening of the racing season in this section and much enthusiasm was manifested. The crowd numbered about 7,500 and it was large enough to fill the big new grand stand to overowing and comfortably fill the lawns.

The change in the state of the going resulted in numerous withdrawals, the stake suffering more in this respect than any other race. Of the eleven carded, five were withdrawn, including Lovetie and Ocean Bound, the overnight favorites. When it became an assured thing that the going would be muddy, the Schorr pair, Star Charter and Frog Legs, were selected as likeliest to win, and the layers were fairly deluged with commissions on this pair. They went to the post at 2 to 5. F. J. Pons also sent two representatives to the post in Font and John Furlong. The former was in the race to make the pace and he fulfilled his part by showing the way until rounding the far turn, where both Froglegs and Star Charter passed him.

Butwell had the former under slight restraint for the first half mile. When called on Star Charter moved up with a rush and, quickly assuming command, drew away without much effort in the stretch. Font was a tiring third, being beaten a couple of lengths by Froglegs.

The Schorr colors were also seen in front in the sixth race, which went to Hamilton. This was a selling affair and Hamilton was bid up $500 over his entered price of $1,100 by Andy Blakeley. The latter has been prominent in selling race bidding whenever a Schorr horse finishes in front.

The biggest dispappointment of the afternoon was furnished by Granite, a 1 to 2 shot in the third race, which was beaten half a length by Countless in a driving finish. That the latter's victory was anticipated was shown by the ring quotations, Countless being backed from 10 to 5 to 1. Another "good thing" materialized when Horron made a runaway affair of the first race, in which he led from the start and won easily from Leochares.

Forty-four layers were in line and speculation was brisk. Following is a list of the bookmakers who cut in: Ted Coburn, Sol Lichtenstein, E. J. Callahan, Leo Wagner, Peter McGrath, J. Saunders, Henry Hanf, Al Hanf, T. J. Shaw, Roy Offutt, L. Gilbert, I. Howard, Willie Applegate, A. Schlesinger, Claude Kyle, B. Falk, J. Hatfield, W. Kerryhart, John Mellinger, David Nicholson, Al Klein, W. Moss, Frisco Gardner, J. Cotrill, E. J. Ryan, M. C. Lewis, P. Grau, Barney Schreiber, Ed. Colell, M. Jordan, B. Davis, Sam Frank, C. Watson, M. Harris, T. Cockrill, J. Rheinhardt, I. Hammerschlag, Bob Kennedy, Frank Shannon, Sidney Cohen, George Cafferata, M. Marks, J. Kavene, George Zeller and John Cahill.

The club house balconies and lawns were crowded with prominent society folk from Detroit. The meetings at this track are fast becoming great social functions. Among others in the club house enclosure were Col. W. S. Hendrie, Bartlett McLennan, W. P. Fraser, Col. Bob Holloway, A. R. Louden, W. R. Northey, George Hendrie and Judge Monck.

The meeting of the Canadian Racing Associations which was to have been held this afternoon was postponed until Monday.

Charles Odell and Charles Lansdale were among the arrivals from Cincinnati. Both will remain for the rest of the meeting.

Jockey Willie Allen, who suffered painful injuries as a result of a nasty fall during the spring meeting at Montreal, arrived from his home in Missouri, where he has been recuperating. He will probably be in condition to ride at Fort Erie.

Frank Tyler was among the layers missing from the ring. His losses at Fort Erie amounted to over $14,000 and he has decided to lay off until the fall meetings in Maryland. During the seven days at Fort Erie, Tyler finished second for $30,000.

Jack Adler and Ed Peters were among the arrivals from New York.

Jockey Willie Hopkins arrived from the west this morning and will do the riding for the Francis J. Pons stable during the meeting here.

Albert Simons left New Jersey yesterday and will spend several days at Harry Payne Whitney's Brookdale Farm as the guest of James Rowe.

A number of horses were worked this morning before the rain. Some of the best moves shown were:

RACING PETITION IS NUMEROUSLY SIGNED.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 13.—The local initiative petition of the Breeders' Association of California for the restoration of horse racing in this state was filed with the registration bureau here today. In Los Angeles City and County over 7,000 signatures were secured. Thirty-five thousand signatures are required in the state to place the measure before the people at the next election.

It is proposed to conduct racing under a state commission of five members, to be appointed by the Governor. Pari-mutuels and auction pool betting would be permitted, should the proposed new racing law become effective. The expenses of the racing commission would be paid by the various racing associations of the state.

ANOTHER PURSE FOR BEDWELL STABLE.

Spohn Scores in Handicap at Lagoon—Floral Park Wins Junior Stakes.

Salt Lake City, Utah, July 13.—H. G. Bedwell's colors were seen in front in today's handicap at Lagoon when Spohn reached the finish first after being interfered with on the far turn. Taplin was trying to squeeze through along the rail when Cherryola began to quit. He was forced to take up his mount, but when the leaders swung wide he sent Spohn along on the inside and the horse, responding gamely, won in a hard drive. Cu Bon ran a capital race. Jenny Geddes, the favorite, was outpaced decisively. Cherryola got away in her stride but was a contender for only three-quarters, when she quit.

James A. Murray, a copper mining magnate from Butte, was among the spectators today.

A good field of two-year-olds went to the post in the Junior Stakes, at five furlongs, carrying a value of $1,000. There were five starters, including Mother Katcham, which J. F. Newman added at the eleventh hour. The added starter gamely fought it out with Floral Park, the eventual winner, which ruled at odds-on. The race was not a true run one. Floral Park and Mother Katcham turned into the stretch on equal terms, with the latter on the outside. Floral Park carried her wide until the eighth post was reached, then drew clear, but ran unsteadily from there home. Gemmel, the favorite of the first race, won after a slight shaking up fifty yards from the finish.

The latter appeared the winner at the paddock gate, but tired in a game final effort. CLINT TUCKER closed a gap and finished like a whirlwind. JOHN H. SHEEHAN set a fast pace, but quit, probably because of being kicked while at the post by TIM JUDGE. SIR BARRY ran well. ANNE McGEE quit.

Went to post at 5:08. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. CHAS. GOETZ, after running close up from the start, took the lead in the stretch and held BEN STONE safe. GUS HARTRIDGE quit badly after being prominent to the stretch turn. MONA LISA set the pace to the stretch, but gave way quickly when challenged.

GOOD PROGRESS AT HAVRE DE GRACE.

New York, July 13.—Work on the new track at Havre de Grace is progressing so satisfactorily that a meeting in September seems assured. The track proper is just about completed and the work of building stables and other structures is about to be begun. The application for racing dates must be made to the County Commission that has charge of the sport in that section of Maryland. The sanction of the Jockey Club will also be requested.

The promoters will use every endeavor to obtain the confidence of horsemen and the racing public by having the services of high class officials. It is proposed to have Christopher Fitzgerald for presiding judge; W. S. Vosburgh, handicapper; C. Cornehlson, clerk of the scales, and Philip J. Dwyer, president of the Brooklyn Jockey Club, has been requested to permit Fred Rehberger to serve as racing secretary. It was hoped that Mars Cassidy or A. B. Dade could be induced to do the starting, but as both of these officials will be employed at the time, Mr. Cassidy in Kentucky and Mr. Dade in Canada, some other will have to be chosen.

The government of the ring will be in the hands of John G. Cavanagh, who has had charge of like affairs at the local tracks for many years.

TULSA HAS ITS BIGGEST RACE CROWD.

Tulsa, Okla., July 13.—The largest crowd that ever attended the races in Tulsa was out today and the three books that operated had all they could do to handle the money offered them. Harmless, much touted, was made favorite in the first race, but failed to run to his work and was never a dangerous contender. Follane, the odds-on favorite of the second race, had only to canter to win. Mawr Lad captured the sixth race in handy style from Minnolette, which finished a head in advance of Electric. The latter was allowed to drop far out of contention in the early running, but for which she would have won. Eva Tanguay, the heavily backed favorite, sulked and refused to extend herself.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

H. J., Chicago. Your query is not sufficiently stated. Repeat it and give the horse and race.
